

Candidate for Secretary:

Barbara Stoffer

Barbara Stoffer has been a CEC member and educator for 28 years. During this period she has been a teacher and administrator. Currently, she is a coordinator for special education in Bibb County School District. Dr. Stoffer has also served as student CEC advisor while an Associate Professor at Clark Atlanta University. She has, in the past, served on the GA CEC Executive Board in charge of Awards. She is currently an adjunct professor at Fort Valley University in the Dept. of Special Education.

Dr. Stoffer has an extensive experience in national and international presentations for CEC in the area of Effective Collaboration between Special and General education teachers. She has been involved on various boards with advocacy for individuals with disabilities and a consultant for parents in advocacy for their children in understanding Special Education Law and implementation of IEP's in schools.

Barbara and Phillip Stoffer are the proud parents of Kalongi, Mark and Dyani.

If elected to secretary of GA CEC, Dr. Stoffer will be honored to serve once again. She finds that it is a wonderful experience in which to participate.
